THE Gutenberg DINNER

We at The Printing Museum, are hosting our annual Gutenberg Dinner celebrating Women in Print at the Houston Country Club on October 7, 2015. This dinner is a dynamic opportunity for your company to engage with some of Houston's leading community figures. We organize the event to aid in the preservation of the Museum's historical collection, educational programming, continued expansion of ideas and art through exhibitions, and community engagement.

This year we are recognizing women and their contributions to the craft and art of printing. The guest list draws from leading community figures including: key stakeholders and educational leaders, prominent local businesses, printmakers, and media representatives; making this event a remarkable occasion for your participation.

We are excited to have Dr. Renu Khator, UH System Chancellor and President of the University of Houston, as our keynote speaker; and Ms. Melanie Lawson, awarding winning journalist and anchor for Channel 13, as our mistress of ceremonies. The two women receiving the Gutenberg Award are Ms. Debbi Briggs, founder and president of ImageSet, and Ms. Dorris Ellis, founder and publisher of the Houston Sun.

We invite you to join us as a sponsor to ensure women continue to make an impact on printing, and the Museum can continue to impact the city's cultural and educational landscape for generations to come.

Sponsorship Opportunities

As a sponsor you will be able to present yourself as a major participant in bringing together the worlds of print, education, and art for the benefit of the thousands of children, college students and families who visit the Museum each year. The Gutenberg Dinner gives you access to up to 200 anticipated guests in a special setting and atmosphere.

We offer a range of options that can meet your business needs and provide a platform for networking as well as for entertaining your clients and colleagues. If a sponsorship level is not offered that is right for you, we would be happy to talk to you about your ideas on how you would like to be involved in The Gutenberg Dinner, or other aspects of The Printing Museum's work.

For more information, please contact Alexandria Hodge at ahodge@printingmuseum.org or (713) 522-4652 ext. 209.
