

PARTICIPATING STUDIOS:

Andis Applewhite

Hand pulled screenprints and woodcut prints.

Art League Houston

Art League Houston offers art courses through the ALH Art school, including a variety of printmaking classes and workshops. Currently on view in the galleries - "The Journey to Me", an exhibition by Vicki Meek, ALH 2021 Texas Artist of the Year.

Burning Bones Press

Burning Bones Press is a printmaking studio which collaborates with artists to produce limited editions of original etchings, lithographs, woodcuts, screenprints and monoprints. The studio also does contract, collaborative printing for other publishers, dealers, artists, and institutions. Burning Bones Press is available as a monthly membership for experienced printmakers and offers workshops for the general public.

The Glassell Print Studio

A part of the Glassell School of Art at the Museum of Fine Arts, the Glassell Print Studio offers a range of classes and workshops in Printmaking to students of all levels, and periodically hosts visiting artists. The brand new facility allows for students to work in screen printing, relief, intaglio, monoprinting, lithography, and to combine print work with photographic, digital, and sculptural methods.

Moran/Valverde Studio, Kelly Moran

Moran/Valverde Studio is in the Heights across from CD Hardware in the Redbud building. This is a private studio run by Kelly Moran where she creates her multimedia works with printmaking being the dominant media. She shares the space with Alice Valverde Tutt, hence the name Moran Valverde Studios.

Lady Lazarus

Lady Lazarus is an award winning independent print studio founded in 2012 that focuses on the production of high end silkscreened fine art editions & collectible film and music posters.

The Printing Museum

The Printing Museum demonstrates the enduring impact of printed work through its permanent collection, temporary exhibits, workshops, and artist studios. The Printing Museum will be featuring the work of the 2020-2021 Artist's Residents as well as the newly expanded studios for letterpress along with printmaking, papermaking, and book binding studios.

University of Houston

A multi-purpose studio where students develop stone lithographs, copper plate etchings, and relief prints while exploring new technologies.

University of Houston - Clear Lake, Printmaking Studio

The Art and Design program at the University of Houston - Clear Lake features printmaking as one of its distinct studio areas! Advanced students will be working in the Printmaking Studio, which is equipped for etching, monotype, relief, and screen-printing. Printmaker and faculty member Lauren Kussro works out of a dedicated studio space next to the main lab area.

Vivian Hordes

In my studio. (A-13, Winter) you will see my recent printes that are created on a large etching press. I combine Collage, Monotype, Carborundum, and Collagraphic processes to make the final printed image. My aim is to balance order & chaos within each composition using shapes, lines & layers that, hopefully, will draw the viewer's eye into an inward realm of reflection and mystery.
